Disturbed Concert at The Oncenter

SYRACUSE, N.Y. – Disturbed will be live in concert on October 28, 2010, at 7:00 p.m. in The Oncenter Civic Center Theaters in Syracuse, N.Y.

Disturbed is a rock band from Chicago, IL, that consists of members David Draiman, Dan Donegan, Mike Wengren, John Moyer. Since their debut in 2000, this multi-platinum group has created several albums, including their newly released album Asylum.

Disturbed's frontman, David Draiman comments on the new album from the band's website, "We've never strayed from our identity. Disturbed records are always going to be rhythmic and powerful. They're always going to deal with the darker side of things. They're always going to be records you can take with you for a little bit of inspiration. That will forever be a common theme with every one of our records." According to the New York Times, Disturbed is one of the few rock bands to have four consecutive releases go to No. 1.

Tickets will be on sale September 18, 2010 at 10:00 a.m. and may be purchased by calling The Oncenter Box Office at 315-435-2121 or visiting www.ticketmaster.com.

About The Oncenter: The Oncenter, a multi-venue exhibition, convention and entertainment facility in Syracuse, N.Y., consists of three venues. It is centrally located in the Northeast to attract both regional and national events that contribute to the economic and cultural development of Onondaga County. The Oncenter Convention Center is a 99,000-square-foot structure ideal for major conventions, meetings, banquets, consumer shows, trade shows, car shows, exhibitions and corporate awards dinners. The space includes exhibition halls, a ballroom and break-out meeting rooms. Next door, The Oncenter War Memorial Arena has the versatility to accommodate numerous large-scale events, including ice shows, family shows, car shows, concerts, sports events and conventions. The Oncenter Civic Center Theaters is home to three beautiful, distinct theaters that host a diverse variety of events, from stage productions to business meetings. The Oncenter has received the Inner Circle Award for being one of the Top 15 convention centers in the nation for eleven consecutive years. For more information, visit www.oncenter.org.
